

ALAMEDA FOOD BANK

Annual Thanksgiving Food Drive

Got Turkeys?

The non-profit Alameda Food Bank is looking for at least 1,000 of them.

Each year the Food Bank provides its clients with ingredients for holiday meals during the months of November and December. Donations of turkeys, hams and beef roasts are needed along with the fixings to go with them.

If you, your friends, family, neighbors, business, club or organization can donate these items please call the Alameda Food Bank office. Due to refrigeration space constraints we ask that you do not just drop off donations, but call ahead to make sure there is room to receive them that day.
